

Angelos Giannoutsos holds a BSc in Business Administration from University of Piraeus and an MSc in Human Resources Management from Athens University of Economics and Business. He is the Head of International Business Development in Coco Mat and he is responsible for the: development of the brand in existing or new markets, implementation of sales budget, forecast & growth of international markets, B2B sales plans, and assessment of key territories' sales potential, among others. In the past, Mr Giannoutsos was HR Internal Communication & Events Coordinator in WIND Hellas SA.