

Thomas Papageorgiou

Thomas is an experienced senior banker with a 25-year career in Corporate and Institutional Banking arena, having worked in a number of blue chips in Banking industry, i.e. Citibank, Alpha Bank, Lehman Brothers, ABN AMRO and others both in London, UK and Athens, Greece.

Thomas brings expertise in Banking Strategy & Execution at Country holistic perspective as well as on managing complex Client relationships, Restructuring, NPLs, re-engineering operations, cost reduction, being Regulatory representative and leading negotiations with trading parties.

Thomas is solution oriented with ability to deliver in both growth and wind down scenarios. He is currently implementing the wind down of RBS Businesses in Greece as Country Executive, leading corporate Client's discussions, as well as managing multi-discipline teams within a matrix organisation.

Thomas is member to the following Associations:

- Association of Chief Executive Officers, EASE
- Hellenic Bank Association, HBA
- British Hellenic Chamber of Commerce, BHCC
- Hellenic Management Association, EEDE
- Union of Hellenic Ship Financiers, HSF

He holds a Bachelor's degree in Statistics from AUEB and an MSc at International Securities, Investments and Banking from Reading University ICMA Centre.