

MANAGING TEAM

Mr. Dionisis Grigoropoulos
BSc(Hons), Dipl. Logistics, MBA

Dionisis Grigoropoulos was born in Athens in 1971. He is the Co-Founder and Managing Director of PRO-LOG firm. He is member of the Board of Directors of Hellenic Logistics Association (EEL) since 2007, which is the official body in supply chain and logistics operations in Greece. He studied Computer Science in the Technological Educational Institute (TEI) of Piraeus. He has also a Bachelors degree from the University of Hertfordshire, a Diploma on Principles of Management by the Hellenic American Union, a Logistics Diploma from Hellenic Management Association (HMA) and an MBA degree from the University of Bath. He is certified instructor the last 5 years in supply chain executive seminars. He has over 20 years experience in management of supply chains, Information Technology and Sales. He was the Project Manager of the large-scale project of installation and implementation of telematic systems in vehicle for the Olympic Games on 2004 in Athens. He is a founding member of ITS HELLAS and Board member in the period 2007-2009. He has participated in various teams for the implementation of research projects of the European Union. He has also a relevant job experience as a Key account manager in Procter & Gamble Hellas, sales Inspector of SCA MOLNYCKE SA , Sales Inspector in ELGEKA, Commercial Manager in G4S (Wackenhut Telematics SA), Chief Financial & Operation Director in Delatolas SA, General Manager in CTS S.A. (Customized transport Services), Director of Athens Chapter & Logistics Department of TREDIT SA - INFOTRIP S.A. From 2009, he established his own company entitled «Logistics Way» which focuses on the provision of software products and services (e.g. Supply Chain & Logistics Consulting Services, Design, Marketing and IT Systems Implementation, Operation & Business Management, Fourth Party logistics and Hotel Logistics) that meet and serve the specific needs and requirements of companies in various business sectors such as supply chain, purchasing, logistics and freight transport.