

Dear Members, Candidates & Friends,

CFA Society Greece is pleased to invite you to a seminar on “Global Investment Performance Standards (GIPS)” by Mr. Iain McAra, Director of Investment Performance Standards for the Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA) region at CFA Institute.

The seminar will take place on Tuesday May 7th 2019, at the Royal Olympic Hotel, 28-34 Athanasiou Diakou Str., 117 43, Athens.

16.00 – 18.00. GIPS Session for candidates “Understanding the ideas and the details of the Global Investment Performance Standards”.

18.30 – 20.30. GIPS for asset owners, asset managers, and investment professionals “Global Investment Performance Standards (GIPS) and its place in building Market Integrity”.

A cocktail reception will follow.

For registration please send a message to events@cfa.gr. Once we receive it, we'll be able to confirm your seat via email. The registrations are on a first-come, first-served basis. Attendance at the event is free of charge.

Please note that 1 CE credit will be awarded to the attendees.

The seminar will be held under the auspices of the Hellenic Fund and Asset Management Association.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Kind regards,
CFA Society Greece

Iain McAra is a director of Investment Performance Standards for the Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA) region at CFA Institute. He is responsible for leading CFA Institute activities in the EMEA region related to the GIPS standards, including managing and developing relationships with country sponsors and volunteers. Iain McAra serves as a spokesperson, conducts outreach to industry stakeholders, and provides oversight on regional and technical committees and working groups.

Academic Supporter

Media Supporter & Communication Sponsor

Under the auspices of

